PTC and the Client agree that sections 96, 115 and 125 of the PPSA do not apply to the security agreement created by these terms and conditions.
The Client waives their rights to receive notices under sections 95, 118, 121(4), 130, 132(3)(d) and 132(4) of the PPSA.

The Client must notify any other alleged defect in the Parts as soon as reasonably possible after any such defect becomes evident. Upon such notification the Client must allow PTC to inspect the Parts.
Under applicable State, Territory and Commonwealth Law (including, without limitation the CCA), certain statutory implied guarantees and warranties (including, without limitation the statutory guarantees under the CCA) may be implied into these terms and conditions (Non-Excluded Guarantees).
PTC acknowledges that nothing in these terms and conditions purports to modify or exclude the Non-Excluded Guarantees.
Except as expressly set out in these terms and conditions or in respect of the Non-Excluded Guarantees, PTC makes no warranties or other representations under these terms and conditions including but not limited to the quality or suitability of the Parts. PTC's liability in respect of these warranties is limited to the fullest extent permitted by law.
If the Client is a consumer within the meaning of the CCA, PTC's liability is limited to the extent permitted by section 64A of Schedule 2.
If PTC is required to replace any Parts under this clause or the CCA, but is unable to do so, PTC may require any money the Client has paid for the Parts.
If PTC is required to rectify, re-supply or pay the cost of re-supplying any Services under this clause or the CCA, but is unable to do so, then PTC may refund any money the Client has paid for the Services but only to the extent that such refund shall take into account the value of Services which have been provided to the Client which were not defective.
If the Client is not a consumer within the meaning of the CCA, PTC's liability for any defect or damage in the Parts is: (a) limited to the value of any express warranty or warranty card provided to the Client by PTC at PTC's sole discretion; (b) limited to any warranty to which PTC is entitled, if PTC did not manufacture the Parts; (c) otherwise negated absolutely.

In the case of second hand Parts, unless the Client is a consumer under the CCA, the Client acknowledges that it has had full opportunity to inspect the second hand Parts prior to delivery and accepts them with all faults and that to the extent permitted by law no warranty is given by PTC as to the quality or suitability for any purpose and any implied warranty, statutory or otherwise, is expressly excluded. The Client acknowledges and agrees that PTC has agreed to provide the Client with the second hand Parts and calculated the Price of the second hand Parts in reliance of this clause 11.11.
PTC may in its absolute discretion accept non-defective Parts for return in which case PTC may require the Client to pay handling fees of up to sixty percent (60%) of the value of the returned Parts plus any freight costs.

Where PTC has designed, drawn or developed Parts for the Client, then the copyright in any designs and drawings and documents shall remain the property of PTC.
The Client warrants that all designs, specifications or instructions given to PTC will not cause PTC to infringe any patent, registered design or trademark in the execution of the Client's order and the Client agrees to indemnify PTC against any action taken by a third party against PTC in respect of any such infringement.

internal administration fees, legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis, PTC's contract default fee, and bank dishonour fees).
Further to any other rights or remedies PTC may have under this contract, if a Client has made payment to PTC by credit card and the transaction is subsequently reversed, the Client shall be liable for the amount of the reversed transaction, in addition to any further costs incurred by PTC under this clause 13 where it can be proven that such reversal is found to be illegal, fraudulent or in contravention to the Client's obligations under this agreement.
Without prejudice to any other remedies PTC may have, if at any time the Client is in breach of any obligation (including those relating to payment) under these terms and conditions PTC may suspend or terminate the supply of Parts to the Client. PTC will not be liable to the Client for any loss or damage the Client suffers because PTC has exercised its rights under this clause.
Without prejudice to PTC's other remedies at law PTC shall be entitled to cancel all or any part of any order of the Client which remains unfulfilled and all amounts owing to PTC shall, whether or not due for payment, become immediately payable if: (a) any money payable to PTC becomes overdue; or in PTC's opinion the Client will be unable to make a payment when it falls due; (b) the Client becomes insolvent, convenes a meeting with its creditors or proposes or enters into an arrangement with creditors, or makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or (c) a receiver, manager, liquidator (provisional or otherwise) or similar person is appointed in respect of the Client or any asset of the Client.

PTC may cancel any contract to which these terms and conditions apply or cancel delivery of the Parts or the supply of Labour at any time before the Parts are delivered by giving written notice to the Client. On giving such notice PTC shall repay to the Client any money paid by the Client for the Parts or the supply of Labour. PTC shall not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever arising from such cancellation.
In the event that the Client cancels delivery of Parts or the supply of Labour the Client shall be liable for any and all loss incurred (whether direct or indirect) by PTC as a direct result of the cancellation (including, but not limited to, any loss of profits).
Cancellation of orders for Parts made to the Client's specifications, or for non-stocklist items, will definitely not be accepted once production has commenced, or an order has been placed.

The lien of PTC shall continue despite the commencement of proceedings, or judgment for any moneys owing to PTC having been obtained against the Client.
